Got called that this retaining wall fell over late Wednesday afternoon. Homeowner says it is a city retaining wall I do not know I took down information and made it safe by barricading it off for now but home owner is wondering if we are going to fix it we have fixed walls down the road a couple blocks in the past but how do we move forward I am trying to get a couple bids just for cost so you know at next council meeting home owner is David Macinnis 204 Louisiana Ave west just looking for some guidance for this I did bring up this wall situation last summer the home owner contacted me about this and council took no action cause there was a debate on owner ship
