It is the intention of this charter to confer upon the city every power which it would have if it were specifically mentioned. The charter shall be construed liberally in favor of the city and the specific mention of particular municipal powers in other sections of this charter does not limit the powers of the city to those thus mentioned. Unless granted to some other officer or body, all powers are vested in the City Council.

Chapter 2: Form of Government

Sec. 2.01. Form of Government.

The form of government established by this Charter is the "Weak Mayor System".

In each such case the Council shall by resolution declare such vacancy to exist within 30 days and shall forthwith appoint an eligible person to fill the vacancy until the next regular election. If the Council because of equal division of votes is unable to fill the vacancy, then the Mayor shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the time specified above, but if the vacancy is that of Mayor and the Council members fail for 30 days after the vacancy to appoint a mayor for the time specified above, a special election to elect a mayor for the time specified above shall be held immediately.

Sec. 2.06. The Mayor.

The Mayor shall be the presiding officer of the Council, except that a president pro tempore shall be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by affirmative vote of the Council, who shall serve as President in the Mayor's absence and as acting Mayor in case of the Mayor's disability or absence from the city. The City Clerk and all subordinate officers and employees of the city shall receive such salaries or wages as may be fixed by the Council.

During the filing period any voter of the city qualified under the state constitution for elective office may, by filing an affidavit and paying a filing fee of $5.00 to the City Clerk, have their name placed on the municipal election ballot, or, if there is no primary election, on the municipal election ballot pursuant to and in compliance with M.S. § 205.13, Subd. 1A or as this section may be amended in the future.

Sec. 3.05. Procedure at Elections.

Chapter 4: Initiative and Referendum

Sec. 4.01. General Voter Authority.

The voters of the city shall have the right, in accordance with this chapter, to propose ordinances and to require ordinances to be submitted to a vote by processes known respectively as the initiative and referendum.

Sec. 4.02. Petitions.

An initiative or referendum shall be initiated by a petition signed by registered voters of the city equal in number to 25 percent of those who voted for mayor in the last preceding city election. Each petition shall be sponsored by a committee of five voters whose names and addresses shall appear on the petition. A petition may consist of one or more papers, but each paper circulated separately shall contain at its head or attached to it the statement required by Section 4.5 or 4.6, as the case may be. Each signer shall sign their name and give their street address. Each separate page of the petition shall have appended to it a certificate, verified by oath, that each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. The person making the certificate shall be a qualified elector of the City. Any person whose name appears on a petition may withdraw their name by a statement in writing filed with the City Clerk before the Clerk advises the Council of the sufficiency of the petition. Once a petition has resulted in an election there cannot be a re-petition of this same matter for at least a two-year period.

Sec. 4.03. Determination of Sufficiency.

Immediately upon receipt of the petition, the City Clerk shall examine the petition as to its sufficiency and report to the Council within 20 days. Upon receiving the report, the Council shall determine by resolution the sufficiency of the petition.

Sec. 4.04. Disposition of Insufficient Petition.

If the Council determines that the petition is insufficient or irregular, the City Clerk shall deliver a copy of the petition, together with a written statement of its defects, to the sponsoring committee. The committee shall have 30 days in which to file additional signature papers and to correct the petition in all other particulars. If at the end of that period the Council finds that the petition is still insufficient or irregular, the City Clerk shall file the petition in their office and notify the sponsoring committee. The final finding that the petition is insufficient, or irregular shall not prejudice the filing of a new petition for the same purpose nor shall it prevent the council from referring the ordinance to the voters at the next regular or special election at its option.

Sec. 4.05. Initiative.

Any ordinance, except an ordinance relating to the budget or capital program, the appropriation of money, the levy of taxes, or the salaries of city officers or employees, may be proposed by a petition which shall state at the head of each page or attached thereto the exact text of the proposed ordinance. If the Council passes the proposed ordinance with amendments and a majority of the sponsoring committee do not disapprove the amended form by a statement filed with the City Clerk within ten days of its passage by the Council, the ordinance need not be submitted to the voters. If the Council fails to enact the ordinance in an acceptable form within 60 days after the final determination of sufficiency of the petition, the ordinance shall be placed on the ballot at the next election occurring in the City. If no election is to occur within 120 days after the filing of the petition, the Council shall call a special election on the ordinance to be held within such period. If a majority of those voting on the ordinance vote in its favor, it shall become effective 30 days after adoption unless the ordinance specifies a later effective date.

Sec. 4.06. Referendum.

Any ordinance subject to the initiative may be subjected to referendum by a petition which shall state, at the head of each page or on an attached paper, a description of the ordinance. Any ordinance upon which a petition is filed, other than an emergency ordinance, shall be suspended in its operation as soon as the petition is found sufficient. If the ordinance is not thereafter entirely repealed, it shall be placed on the ballot at the next election or at a special election called for that purpose, as the Council determines. If a majority of the voters voting thereon favors the ordinance, it shall go into effect immediately or on the date specified in the ordinance; if a majority of the electors voting thereon votes against the ordinance, it shall be considered repealed upon certification of the election results. If a petition is filed against an emergency ordinance; the ordinance shall remain in effect but shall be repealed if a majority of the voters voting on the ordinance vote against it.

Chapter 5: Council Procedures

Sec. 5.01. Council Meetings.

The City Council shall meet regularly at least once each month at such times and places as the Council may designate by rule. The Mayor or any three members of the Council may call special meetings of the Council upon at least 72 hours notice to each member and upon proper notice to the public. No ordinance except an emergency ordinance shall be adopted at the meeting at which it is introduced. Every proposed ordinance, excepting emergency ordinances, shall have two readings. The first reading of the proposed ordinance shall be held at the first regular meeting following the meeting in which the exact copies of the ordinance are made available to the Council members. Between the first and second readings, a copy of the full language of the proposed ordinance shall be made available to the public by posting it in City Hall at the location where public notices are generally displayed and posting to the City website. Its second reading shall be held at the next regular meeting and such ordinance shall not be changed after the meeting at which it receives its first reading. A vote upon the ordinance shall then be taken and said ordinance declared either adopted or not. The inclusion in the Council proceedings of any proposed ordinance shall not be deemed as necessary prior to its first reading.

Every ordinance, resolution and record of the proceedings of the Council, which are passed by the Council shall be signed by the Mayor, and attested to by the City Clerk, and filed and preserved by him or her. Every ordinance shall be published at least once in the official newspaper. Publication of ordinances, resolutions and records of the proceedings of the Council shall be in accordance with the state statute and sufficient to satisfy the provisions of the charter. To the extent and in the manner provided by law an ordinance may incorporate by reference a statute, state administrative rule or regulation of Minnesota, a code, or ordinance or part thereof without publishing the material referred to in full. The annual financial statement shall be published and made available at the City Clerk's office and shall be displayed at the public library.

Sec. 5.09. When Ordinances and Resolutions take effect.

No ordinance or resolution shall be amended by reference to the title alone, but such an amending ordinance or resolution shall set forth in full each section or subdivision to be amended and shall indicate by appropriate type or symbols matter to be omitted or added.

Sec. 5.11. Revision, Codification and Preservation of Ordinances.

The city may revise, rearrange and codify its ordinances with such additions and deletions as may be deemed necessary. The ordinance code shall be made available by the Council at the Office of the City Clerk for general distribution to the public free or for a reasonable charge.
